As a Destination Marketing Organization, the Charlottesville Albemarle Convention & Visitors Bureau (CACVB) is committed to building a welcoming environment for visitors. We believe in tourism for all.
MISSION
To welcome all visitors, improve the quality of life for residents, support a robust tourism ecosystem, and drive overnight visitation through innovation and collaboration

VISION
To create a better quality of life for residents by being the most inclusive, diverse, welcoming, thriving destination for visitors in the Southeast

VALUES
To uphold the values of resiliency, unity, diversity, creativity, and responsibility, and let these ideals lead the work we do
Strategic Imperatives

• Resiliency: As defined by its mission, the primary function of the CACVB is to Drive Overnight Visitation, which fuels the rest of the strategic imperatives.

• Unity: This destination is only as strong as the partners it represents and how well those partners work together to Increase Visitor Spending as a unified place.

• Diversity: Our community has a diverse range of people, places and experiences. The CACVB helps to Develop New Visitor Opportunities (tourism product) by fostering strong partnerships with tourism-related businesses and non-profits.

• Creativity: Destinations are defined by what makes them unique, and we have the opportunity and responsibility to Tell Stories that Uplift and Inspire.

• Responsibility: As a governmental body, the CACVB has the responsibility to Utilize Public Funds with Transparency and Efficiency to optimize its impact.
The CACVB is an innovative, collaborative and service-oriented destination marketing and management organization that welcomes all visitors to Charlottesville and Albemarle County with the goal of improving the quality of life for residents and supporting a robust tourism ecosystem. This ecosystem is sustained and enhanced through partnerships with all tourism-related businesses and attractions in Charlottesville and Albemarle County.

The CACVB is funded through a portion of the Lodging Tax, generated through overnight stays in our wide variety of accommodations. Therefore, welcoming visitors from all backgrounds to stay overnight is the primary mission of our organization.

What Are We Trying to Accomplish?

- Uphold the brand pillars and ensure that they meet or exceed the expectations of our visitors
- Create a welcoming environment by extending the quality of care to everyone, equitably
- Strengthen our inclusive thinking when it comes to frontline interactions
- Build tourism products that appeal to a diverse audience base
- Propose a counter narrative to the one in the national news through real change

Social media ads received significant engagement, with potential visitors planning their trip in the comments (and tagging their friends), while simultaneously receiving buy-in from locals.
National Advertising Success – The Local Palate

The CACVB ran a print/digital campaign with The Local Palate, including multi-page advertorials, with one focusing solely on Black-owned restaurants in Charlottesville & Albemarle County.

The web version of the Black-owned restaurants advertorial received 2.57x more page views than any other element of our campaign, allowing us to shine a spotlight on these important local businesses.

Patience is a necessity if you're in the mood for fried chicken, as Walker takes no shortcuts: He won't even think about starting the fryer until a guest orders this southern staple. From the fried fish submarine to the bologna and egg sandwich, it's easy to see why Mel's has been consistently named one of the most popular destinations in Charlottesville.

• The CACVB ran a winter TV campaign on WJLA-TV (Good Morning Washington) featuring five 4-minute segments pushing winter visitation to Charlottesville and Albemarle County.

• The CACVB was able to involve nearly a dozen partners in these segments and a TV commercial schedule ran into January.

• We saw great success with this outlet in FY22, so we expanded it to a weeklong “Good Morning Washington” takeover in FY23.

FY23 Content Creation Update
CACVB Content Creation Efforts

- From July – March, the CACVB has published 26 blog posts, already exceeding our yearly goal. Blog posts have been created internally, through guest writers, and through partner collaborations.

- The average time on page for our blog has increased by 46% year-over-year in FY23 (going from 2:28 to 3:38).

- Most viewed blog content in FY23 has included outdoor recreation, wine, and winter visitation ideas.
• This winter, the CACVB embarked upon a complete overhaul of the visitor guide. This was a teamwide collaboration and the first time the production of a visitor guide had been completely managed in-house.

• The new guide leans heavily on stunning photography, QR codes driving to our website, and encourages shoulder season and midweek visitation.
CACVB Public Relations Efforts

• Proactive media outreach to target markets was limited in FY23. A baseline of 12 articles per year, with 5 coming from target markets has been established. Outreach efforts will be increased for the remainder of FY23 and into FY24, with additional staff joining the CACVB.

• Screenshot of “3-Day Weekend” on ESPN, featuring Charlottesville and Albemarle County.
CACVB Public Relations Efforts

• Recent media placements have included outlets in our target markets, including WETA-TV in Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia Magazine.

Monday, May 8: Charlottesville, VA
A visit to Charlottesville, Virginia offers Laurita and Lauren both adventure and meaningful historical explorations.

With delicious food stops at Bodo’s Bagels and Angelic’s Kitchen, and stays at The Clifton and The Draftsman hotels, the hosts get a new perspective on Laurita’s college town. The visit also includes horseback riding with Indian Summer Guide Service, wine-tasting at Veritas Vineyards and a poignant personal tour of Monticello.

Why Charlottesville’s Quirk Hotel Should be the Next Stylish Address for Your Vacation

Late fall is an ideal time to head to Charlottesville, and the Quirk Hotel has a central location from which to explore this vibrant city.

By Renee Sklarow | November 1, 2022

In a city known for its history, Quirk Charlottesville is a haven for contemporary design lovers. The hotel’s groundbreaking architecture incorporates modern minimalism with historic structures, making it entirely unique in Charlottesville.
